Minstrels in Town.

Gay Bros' Minstrel arrived in the city this afternoon and are ready to give a grand show of their acrobatic street parade and a short band concert at the corner of Front and Bridge streets. They are an excellent one, with several good soloists in it. They attracted a large crowd of people, who were well pleased with the music. They should have a large house on this evening.

GOOD BLOOD AND SOUND MUSCLES.

Head's Emulsion is a blood-purifying and strengthening food. It removes the feeling of listlessness which takes possession of one when suffering from general debility.

NO. 130

EXTENSION OF GEORGE ST.

The City Council Asked to Make a Grant in That Behalf.

See for the Children's Aid Society that the children's matter. Again, the children's matter is governed by the same By-Law as houses and vehicles.

The City Council last evening consumed two and a half hours in doing business that required about an hour. There was no really important item of business, but the afternoon talk, apparently for the love of it, on matters of no importance.

There were present Mr. W. H. Mayor, John A. Doyle, J. H. Falkner, Patrick, Chisholm, Hangerford, Lemmon, Taylor, Lamborne, Wallace, Dwyer, Grills, Marshall and Harris.

From the Canadian Fire Union Association stating that it had been decided to leave Belleville in class C with their present appliances, but if Belleville were to be placed in class A a fire alarm system must be put in, a chief kept in constant attendance at the station, and weekly drills of the brigade.

From Mrs. N. H. Ferry calling the attention of the Council to a dangerous wall of a building opposite her hotel, and threatening to hold the city liable if any damage occurred.

A number of small accounts were also read, and the above were referred to their respective committees.

CITY AND DISTRICT.

The Guy Bros. to-night.

Schuster sells fine lamb's wool under wear for 50c.

Although it is rather early, this looks like Indian Summer.

To-night the famous Guy Bros. Minstrels.

Schuster sells genuine Scotch wool under wear for 75c.

Grand band concert in front of the Opera House this evening.

Division Court was held to-day. There was a large docket.

Schuster sells fine lined underwear for 50c, 75c, and $1.00.

Our report of Ameliasburg fair has again been crowded out.

At the Cheese Board to-day only 10 boxes were sold at 90c. Ware & Co. were buyers.

Employees of the Grand Trunk have been now prohibited from smoking while on duty.

Whitney and Ballantyne, the small-pox patients, were today released from the isolation hospital at Toronto.

A family quarrel was ventilated in police court this morning in the case of a woman being taken between man and wife.

The formal opening of the Salvation Army barracks took place last evening with great eclat. It was a real "blood and fire" meeting.

Elta Pearl Hall, the eleven-year-old daughter of Lawrence Hall, friend of Sidney's, yesterday and was buried at the cemetery this afternoon.

Philip McGee, a laborer on the Grand Trunk, whose home is in the city, was killed by a horse broken whilst working at Cobscook yesterday.

The case before the Magistrate yesterday in which Henry Harris and Charles Knapley, of Stirling, were charged with breaking into a house to steal property, was settled.

Remember the Book-Binding Department connected with this office. First-class work done in all its branches. Repairing, etc., and quickly and at moderate prices.

We expect to have enough Indian Chop-late Monday night. At 20c per pair to last until Sunday night. Only a few pairs left.

Haines & Lockett have opened up a lot of fine-lined boots for Ladies and Misses, and are now in the meantime they make an excellent walking or school shoe.

The evangelistic services in the Tabernacle were very interesting last night. Mr. Hill took for his subject "Why Prayers are Answered." There was a large attendance and the singing quite inspiring. Some service was given by the choir.

Merchants, doctors, lawyers and others having bills to send, will do well to note the fact that the Belleville Credit Department is printing a good quality of statements at a "rock-bottom" price—35 to 40 cents per hundred—paid and collected $1.25 per thousand. This price cannot be beaten in the city.

Ten years ago I insured one of our prominent citizens on the endowment plan. He is now just handed him the cheque. This is printing a good quality of statements at a "rock-bottom" price—35 to 40 cents per hundred—paid and collected $1.25 per thousand. This price cannot be beaten in the city.

A report because current this morning that parties connected with the late bank robbery at Napanee, had been arrested at that place. Inquiry by wire shows the report as untrue, and no doubt the work of a malicious mischief maker.

Hard Times; The Cause and Cure.

Rev. Dr. Galbraith will deliver an interesting and instructive lecture on the above subject in Bridge St. Church, Tuesday evening, Oct. 7th. Silver collection, 10c and upwards.

We Are for Gold.

The Intelligence will oppose the election of gold in the Y.M.C.A. contest, which is now beginning to warm.

Fleece Lined Underwear.

We want the men who cannot wait wool underclothing to come to the Oak Hall and see the heavy fleece lined underwear we are offering. You are offering to get a thin light weight in almost any case at this price, but our underwear is heavy and warm, with a good thick fleece. Come and examine it.

Piano Tuning.

Mr. W. U. Ashton as a first class piano tuner is highly recommended by Messrs. Brown & Black and A. C. S. Northmore. Orders may be left at J. H. Higgs, 2400.

Her Father's Victim

DEATH TO INDUSTRY

Is the Battle Cry of the Unemployed Population.

the strike. The strike is the death of industry.

WANTED TO DIE

Lawrence Flannery, a Belleville Man,
Cut his Throat at Trenton.

Quite a sensation was created in Trenton, when the following happened: Lawrence Flannery, a Belleville man, was lying on the C. & D. track, a short distance from the Belleville station, when he was shot by a man named John Thompson, of that town.

He was lying on his back, and when the bullet struck him, he fell on his back, and he was killed.

When they attempted to carry the wounded man away, he fought desperately and repeatedly asked someone to "kill" him.

He was taken to his brother-in-law's residence, where his wound was dressed.

The doctor said that the wound was a fatal one, and he would not survive.

He was taken to the Belleville hospital, where he was kept for some time.

Watch Repairing

How often we hear of a watch that has been broken, and the owner is unable to get it repaired. This is because the watch is not properly cared for, and the owner does not know how to take care of it. A watch is a delicate instrument, and it requires the skill of a watchmaker to repair it. T. Blackburn, Jeweller and Specialist in Lenses for the Eye, is the man to go to for watch repairs.

VOL. 31.

BELLEVEILLE, ONTARIO, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1897.

THE DIVINE HEALER.

REV. DR. TALMAGE'S NEW AND UNIQUE VIEW OF CHRIST.

The Magnificent of the Divine Man, Christ Jesus—The Popular Pictures of Christ and How They Represented Him.

Christ is looked at from an unusual standpoint by Dr. Talmage in his new morning sermon. He says: "The man Jesus was looked at in 46. His name shall be called Wonderful."

The prophet lived in a dark time. For some thousands of years the world had been settling down. The nations were at peace. The world was at peace. The world was at peace.

In most legends there is a picture of Christ. Sometimes it represents Him with a face of suffering, sometimes with a face of joy. Sometimes it represents Him with a face of suffering, sometimes with a face of joy.

After the battle of Antioch, when a general rode along the lines, although the soldiers were weary and exhausted, they rose with great enthusiasm and hailed him.

THE DEAR LITTLE CHAPS—they feel "just lovely" after a bath with BABY'S OWN SOAP. No substitute will give their skin the exquisite softness, and freshness, and sweetness as this king of nursery soaps.

CAUTION—Baby's skin will soon show the difference between it and many of its dangerous imitations.

agion, Christ was wonderful in His teaching. The people had been used to formulas and to formulas. Christ came with a new teaching. He came with a new teaching.

The foundation of the world will be with Him. The foundation of the world will be with Him. The foundation of the world will be with Him.

A Man Made Happy.—Gleanings. For five years I have been a great sufferer from a peculiar pain in the pit of my stomach...

It does not follow that because goods are needed down there, they are going to be...

It is a pity that the sufferer is not satisfied with the medicine, and I will do all I can to help him.

A lady living on Church Street, Toronto, recently visited one of the city stores and bought a package of—Cardinal hair color a small drum. She relates her experience as follows:

"I bought a package of Cardinal Dye and carried it home for the purpose of coloring a cream wool dress for my little girl and according to the printed directions I was quite disappointed with my job. The color came out so muddy and undecided color that I was forced to dye it a dark color in order to save the dress. My failure was due to the fact that I was talked into buying a common make of dye instead of the Diamond dye I had always used before. I am now very assured that I shall always use the Diamond Dye in the future, as I have now from experience they are the best."

The settings of the G-leslie are very picturesque and beautiful. The action moves quickly along with the capital illustrations, scenes and choruses; the dancing is audacious and entertaining, and there is not a dull moment in the play. This is owing not only to the merits of the play itself, but to the clever company which presents it.

Miss Laura Stiller, as O Minna, Sanna, the Chief Isakaha, and Lirio De Costa, and Molly Senmore, are said to divide the honors of the best acting in the country, as shown at Hugu's. No advance in price.

"I wish you could be free from suffering and take on a new life, or resume in a new way the life you led before that may drag you to the grave at any time."

"I heard in mind that Daisy's Colony Compound cured all forms of rheumatism, and that it was the only medicine that could restore," Mrs. M. J. Vinco de Barco, Guyana.

"I am happy to say that I have taken Daisy's Colony Compound with great results. I had noticed so badly that I couldn't sleep. After taking the medicine for a period of three weeks was helplessly laid up and suffered pain that at times was unendurable."

"I tried many medicines, but all in vain I was afterwards recommended to try Daisy's Colony Compound. I am now enjoying the best of health and am enjoying the life."

FILES CROOK WITHOUT THE KNIFE BY DR. CHASE.

I was troubled for years with the rheumatism and the pain was so great, until I tried Dr. Chase's Colony Compound. It cured me and I am now enjoying the best of health.

(Toronto News, Oct. 21)

Miss Ella Bell was in the dock at the Police Court this morning as a vagrant, and a small looking man stepped into the witness box.

"Is this your wife?" asked the Magistrate.

"She is," said the witness.

"Since when?" "A. "No."

"Since when?" "A. "Since five weeks ago, when I went down to Belleville to attend my father's funeral. When I came back I found her in a low house on Elizabeth street."

The police officer corroborated the husband in reference to his wife's depravity and she was convicted and sent to goal for sixty days.

Return of the Favorite.
That up-to-date railroad comedy drama

"Side-Tracked" will be the attraction at the opera house next Wednesday evening. The company presenting the play this season is the best that has ever appeared in it and are meeting with flattering success wherever seen. The piece has been re-written and brought up-to-date in every respect. The play is replete with new and catchy music, consisting of songs, quartets, trios, operettas, and dances. Let course of the third act a number of diverting specialties are given. "Side-Tracked" is a powerful, yet laughable, comedy drama. In fact, has comedy enough in it to stock three or four melo-dramas. It will be presented with new and ingenious mechanical effects and striking costumes. Be sure and see this wonderful production. Seats now on sale at Riggs'.

THE PROVINCIAL AUDIT WORKS THAN A FAIRY.

One of the strongest points made by Mr. Whitney and his friends who have supported him on the issue of his public address, has been with regard to the so-called system of auditing, which we may call in familiar terms the provincial books of account.

Many years ago a cash surplus of some four millions of dollars was accumulated during the four years of truly economical administration under the Sandfield Macdonald regime; but, by tricks of book-keeping, such as including as cash, transfers in the hands of the Dominion (the exact amount of which had not even been ascertained), which were not taken into account as a surplus by the Macdonald Government, by robbing inquiry into the public expenditures in the Public Accounts Committee impossible; and by a highly complacent auditor, who certified to more than he knew, the public were ever year informed, with unquestioning fidelity, that there was still a most comfortable surplus of several millions, more or less. It was of such scandalous pretences that Mayor Johnson, of this city, who is one of the highest authorities on this continent as to book-keeping and auditing—was an authority whose competence they will not venture to dispute, for his works on book-keeping and auditing have been selected as text-books by the Ontario Education Department—said in his admirable speech at Mr. Whitney's meeting at Tweed: "According to the Joint Stock Companies Act, private persons have no right to inspect the accounts of a company, and no person is permitted to publish or to make statements that were false in any particular. If that doctrine were applied to the Provincial Government, what would be the result? Mr. Harcourt would be both imprisoned and fined for issuing a false balance sheet."

Thanks to the efforts of Mr. Whitney and the other Conservative critics, and also of the Weekly Sun, of Toronto—the Palace—this position has been maintained. Premier Harris has been compelled to confess that there is a deficit, and the facts stand fully revealed to the public in all their significance.

Mr. Harris having confessed judgment, what excuse has his opponent been able to give for his transgression, in order to secure suspension, or at all events mitigation, of public judgment?

The only plea that we have seen is put forth by the London Free Press, namely that Mr. Whitney had shirked his duty in the Public Accounts Committee! Only that, and nothing more.

As if Mr. Whitney's failure to do his duty in Committee could give our provincial book-keepers a right to demand new methods or reform the peculiar style of "audit" which had been approved by the Government in many years of—shall we say very sharp—practice!

But did Mr. Whitney shirk his duty in the Public Accounts Committee?

According to the London Free Press, Mr. Whitney's complaint is that the members of the Legislature are not given the opportunity of investigating the Public Accounts, that the Committee is inefficient and obstructive to a degree which prevents a proper investigation, which forbids close inquiry, and that the attempt which he and others have made, time and again, to get to the bottom of peculiar entries has been belabored and checked by repeated adjournments, and a total disinclination to produce the vouchers that are called for.

Mr. Whitney's charge was that the permanent Committee of Public Accounts shirked their duty in their efforts to shield the Government from the effects of an honest investigation, thereby making the attendance of himself and his colleagues a waste of time.

This statement is precisely in accord with what has many times been said by Mr. A. F. Wood, the former aide member for North Hastings, who was one of the keenest financial critics on the Conservative side in the House. Mr. Wood has many times stated that it was impossible, for the reasons stated by Mr. Whitney, and owing to lack of sufficient time, to properly scrutinize the provincial expenditures, and that such was the case beyond doubt.

Mr. Whitney, at London and elsewhere, comments the Free Press, has emphasized the declaration which the Premier has made to the effect that "There is one question which I cannot overlook," he says "and that is the question of audit. An audit is really of great service or of no service at all. What is the system of audit in the Province of Ontario? In the Government of Canada there is an Auditor-General, before whom every outlay, large and small, of the Dominion of Canada has to pass and be approved of, and in all the Auditor-General's reports, but there is no such kind in the province. There is an Auditor whose certificate simply amounts to this, that the additions are correct. It amounts to nothing.

To prove that the Auditor amounts to nothing, Mr. Whitney cites the case of a Prison Inspector who put in a bill to the Treasury for his life insurance premium. He had his life insured for $10,000. This is the evidence he gave before the Public Accounts Committee.

Manchester Children in Canada.

To the Editor of the Manchester Guardian.

SIR,—As many of your readers are aware of the recent visit to Canada, accompanied by my wife, in connection with the emigration work of the Strangways Institution, it may interest them to know something of the results of that visit. We it the results of the visit to the Dominion, nearly every day of which was given to investigating the results and progress of juvenile emigration. During this period we were able to inspect the files and records of sent out in former years.

I may presume by saying that the headquarters of the Strangways work in Canada is at Belleville, a thriving town located just beyond Montreal and

Toronto, and in the centre of a rich farming country. Here is the Marchmont

Homes, under the direction of the Rev.

John Marchmont, who has been here

several years, and whose long experience and high character make him eminently qualified for the position. Our children go to their care at Marchmont on arrival, and are placed in the hands of carefully selected homes. The arrangements at the Marchmont Homes are very complete.

The names of each boy and girl is entered on arrival in the books of the Marchmont Homes, and the letters are given to each. On one side are the antecedents of the child, on the opposite side

the names of the foster parents or employers, and the names of the children, and every event in that boy or girl's life, whether good or bad, is carefully noted. The reports of the visitors, of whom there are three, constantly visiting among the children, are preserved, and the changes which take place in the children and the changes which
